

Members and Non-Members Honoraria

Becoming a member of Congregation Beth El allows you to become part of one of the oldest Jewish communities in the Central Susquehanna Valley while at the same time ensuring that the congregation will continue to exist for generations to come. In addition, being a member in good standing gives you the privilege of:

- Ability to register your children in our Sunday School
- Access to all synagogue educational programs
- Automatic invitations to all synagogue events
- Enrollment on our listserv
- Voting rights, per our Bylaws
- Tracking and commemoration of yahrtzeit dates
- Rabbinic services including:
 - Spiritual counseling
 - Pastoral visits
- Use of the social hall for kiddush luncheons or onegs associated with Shabbat or a holiday.

The following services are available to members and non-members:

Service	Non-Members To Rabbi	Non-Members To Beth El	Members To Rabbi	Members To Beth El
Funeral services	$360	$180	$180
Chevra Kaddisha		$360
Wedding services	$800	$180	$500
Social hall rental		$1000*		$250*
Building rental (see additional notes)		$2,500*
Birth-related lifecycle services	$500	$180
Bat or Bar Mitzvah services	$2,000*
Cleaning fees		$180		$150

* Subject to Restrictions. For members, this fee is waived for lifecycle events for when an oneg/ Kiddush lunch follows.

 Funds go to Beth El's Cemetery Fund

There is a cleaning fee of $150 to cover the additional cleaning costs that come with having a larger number than usual in our space. Arrangements will be made by a synagogue representative for our cleaning service to come in following the final event (usually Saturday evening), according to our usual cleaning schedule. This cleaning does not include washing dishes, putting away food, resetting the social hall, or cleaning of linens. If you have a larger than usual oneg or dinner on Friday evening that requires additional cleaning, an additional charge will be incurred, based on the cost of a late-night cleaning service.

Additional Notes:

- Travel expenses apply.
- The honoraria for the rabbi for members are a suggested number and may be adjusted according to individual need. We are a caring community and understand that individual circumstances can be taken into account for our community.

Building Rental for non-members includes: use of entire space, regular cleaning service before and after event, use of tables and chairs, supervised use of kitchen in accordance with the synagogue's guidelines. Also included: one-year membership, excluding voting privileges.
